

Prevent Power Strip Fires

Do

Use power strips that have a circuit breaker or fuse and are labeled by a Nationally Recognized Testing Laboratory, such as UL or ETL

Don't

Plug high current loads into power strips, such as: Refrigerators, Microwave ovens, Large coffee pots, and space heaters

“Daisy-chain” power strips and extension cords (one plugged into another)