

6.1 Master List of Required Training

List the training required in order to work with chemicals in your laboratory. This list should include training provided by the university, outside sources, and hands-on training of tasks and procedures provided in-lab. It is understood that the training below does not apply to all students or staff but will be based on each individual's work assignments.

[illegible]